

Please allow states to maintain the individual no call list. This does not harm any businesses both because their are consumers who are not registered. Those who are registered are still reached through other types of advertisments. (Mailing, television, faxes, etc)